

OBJECTIVE

Local 91 wishes to provide our Members with up to date information about social programs and government resources. We have done our best to capture programs for our Members residing in Ontario and Quebec.

PROVINCIAL OR FEDERAL WORKSITES

Please ensure when you review this document, you are aware if your industry is provincially or federally regulated. If in doubt, speak to your Union Steward or contact your Business Representative.

VERSION

SOURCES

WYLLIE SPEARS, LLP

The majority of this information has been provided by Wyllie Spears, LLP legal counsel to Teamsters Local Union No. 91. It should be noted this is simply a guide only to identify and highlight best practices and access to further sources of information.

TEAMSTERS LOCAL UNION NO. 91

We continue to seek the best sources of information for our Members. A quick look at this document demonstrates it goes well beyond the employment relationships we maintain. It provides a look at the full spectrum of sources of information for you and your family. Please continue to utilize best safety practices through these unprecedented times. We recognize many of the essential roles our Members are playing today and will continue to support all our Members throughout this crisis. Stay strong and safe – Brian MacDonald, President Teamsters Local Union No. 91

IMPORTANT NOTES

OUR MEMBERS NEED HELP!

Help comes in a variety of ways – the focus of this document is to provide you with a tool to seek out assistance for those who are vulnerable or have been adversely affected by COVID-19. You are responsible for any claims you may initiate, and best practices include documenting all related interactions and saving any documents related to a claim which may be scrutinized at a later date by an outside source.

THE PROGRAMS ARE CONSTANTLY CHANGING

Check back often, whether programs are driven individually through your Employer or through government assistance, new adaptations are constantly evolving. In our unionized workspaces, always consult with your Human Resources Department or the Management point of contact first for any Employer driven programs available. Thereafter, please refer to this document for alternative resources through government sources. While this is a summary of various programs, we recommend you explore all levels of government for sources of information.

SCAMS

Unfortunately, scams will arise related to COVID-19. Please note, the CRA does not text people to indicate they have money for you. Please visit the National Anti-Fraud Centre for further information.

INFORMATION VERSUS RUMOURS

It is human nature to answer a question when you are asked for advice. However, like the COVID-19 virus, much remains unknown. Be sure to get all the facts from reliable sources before you make any final decisions. Also, always be extremely cautious when providing others advice.

SERVICE CANADA

Service Canada Offices are physically closed to the public. Announcements should be forthcoming as to how the Government will assist people without a computer to access available programs.

OUR MEMBERS

Dear Sisters & Brothers,

Our team at Teamsters Local Union No. 91 continues to monitor the ongoing COVID-19 situation and serve our Membership through these unprecedented times. Our priority is providing you with information to keep you and your family safe during this pandemic. This document is designed to provide you a snapshot of available sources for support, recognizing we have Members residing in Ontario and Quebec. I encourage you to explore all options at your convenience and monitor government sources of information for updates.

We have many essential frontline workers and it is important to recognize their selfless efforts on behalf of all our Members as follows:

To all our Local 91 Members providing essential services on the frontlines of the COVID-19 crisis:

We recognize anxiety, drastic increases in volume and long hours have become frontline concerns. The new 'social distancing' and required sanitation guidelines to safely perform your job add challenges that didn't exist weeks, even days ago. There is no script forward as we continue to adapt to new standards of care and workplace safety.

These are not normal times or conditions. We know our Teamsters have rallied together to ensure the supply chain keeps providing the necessary goods and support to our nation in need. The stability related to the supply chain, care of our seniors and other essential work fosters social calming, as members of society continue to understand that your services remain available and will be available during this crisis. People are desperately counting on Teamsters in many industries, whether in the supply chain, courier services, retirement homes, freight delivery and hospital security to name a few.

I believe it is important to acknowledge your efforts collectively and individually at all our essential workplaces. Our nation owes a debt of gratitude and loyalty to our Teamsters who despite their fears and challenges continue to come to work amid times of complete uncertainty. As we continue to step up to the challenge, I believe it is important to recognize the significant role you play in resolving the crisis. As countless challenges remain in the future, I know as Teamsters, we are more than ready and capable to be on the frontlines of the unknown.

Your efforts make us all proud to be a Member of Teamsters Local Union No. 91.

Stay safe and strong and our thoughts are with you and your families.

Brian MacDonald

President – Teamsters Local Union No. 91
